(Further explanation is provided on the next page)

Further Explanation

(Local Government Act and Code of Conduct)

A conflict of interest exists where a reasonable and informed person would perceive that a Council official could be influenced by a private interest when carrying out their public duty. Interests can be of two types: pecuniary or non-pecuniary.

All interests, whether pecuniary or non-pecuniary are required to be fully disclosed and in writing.

Pecuniary Interest

A pecuniary interest is an interest that a Council official has in a matter because of a reasonable likelihood or expectation of appreciable financial gain or loss to the Council official. (section 442)

A Council official will also be taken to have a pecuniary interest in a matter if that Council official's spouse or de facto partner or a relative of the Council official or a partner or employer of the Council official, or a company or other body of which the Council official, or a nominee, partner or employer of the Council official is a member, has a pecuniary interest in the matter. (section 443)

The Council official must not take part in the consideration or voting on the matter and leave and be out of sight of the meeting. The Council official must not be present at, or in sight of, the meeting of the Council at any time during which the matter is being considered or discussed, or at any time during which the council is voting on any question in relation to the matter. (section 451)

Non-Pecuniary

A non-pecuniary interest is an interest that is private or personal that the Council official has that does not amount to a pecuniary interest as defined in the Act.

Non-pecuniary interests commonly arise out of family, or personal relationships, or involvement in sporting, social or other cultural groups and associations and may include an interest of a financial nature.

The political views of a Councillor do not constitute a private interest.

The management of a non-pecuniary interest will depend on whether or not it is significant.

Non Pecuniary – Significant Interest

As a general rule, a non-pecuniary conflict of interest will be significant where a matter does not raise a pecuniary interest, but it involves:

- (a) A relationship between a Council official and another person that is particularly close, for example, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, lineal descendant or adopted child of the Council official or of the Council official's spouse, current or former spouse or partner, de facto or other person living in the same household.
- (b) Other relationships that are particularly close, such as friendships and business relationships. Closeness is defined by the nature of the friendship or business relationship, the frequency of contact and the duration of the friendship or relationship.
- (c) An affiliation between a Council official an organisation, sporting body, club, corporation or association that is particularly strong.

If a Council official declares a non-pecuniary significant interest it must be managed in one of two ways:

1. Remove the source of the conflict, by relinquishing or divesting the interest that creates the conflict, or reallocating the conflicting duties to another Council official.
2. Have no involvement in the matter, by taking no part in the consideration or voting on the matter and leave and be out of sight of the meeting, as if the provisions in section 451(2) apply.

Non Pecuniary – Less than Significant Interest

If a Council official has declared a non-pecuniary less than significant interest and it does not require further action, they must provide an explanation of why they consider that the conflict does not require further action in the circumstances.

RECOMMENDATION

That the Cultural Steering Group continue the Cultural Plan Review discussion.

Discussion

After the last Cultural Steering Group Meeting a Cultural Plan Review Draft Addendum was tabled for discussion. This caused some confusion within the group and further discussions with the Chair of the Cultural Steering Group were held.

Council also met with the some key stakeholders that had been identified by the Cultural Steering Group through the review process. A meeting was held on February 20 2018, with Debbie Sommers, Kevin Williams and Mitch McKay to discuss the Cultural Plan Review and approach. This meeting will be to bring them up to date with:

- Progress of the Actions within the current Cultural plan (2016-2019),
- Process that has been working through to review the plan; and
- Discussion about the next steps around developing a new plan to gain their assistance in reviewing the Pre-draft and Draft plans.

These key stakeholders will continue to play a role in the development of the Cultural Plan.

A new Cultural Plan is currently being developed with the information gathered through the workshops and subsequent discussions.

A meeting with Chris Denny and Willie Wilhemina is scheduled with Council Staff on Friday 2 March 2018 to further progress the plan. The focus of this meeting in the first instance would be to integrate the work undertaken by Chris on the action table and combine with the actions developed in workshop three.

Secondly the group will focus on development of a pre-draft that can be circulated to the larger group (Cultural Steering Group and other invitees) and key stakeholders before developing a final draft.

A further workshop with Cultural Steering Group members, key stakeholders and Staff is being planned for mid-March 2018 to further develop a draft plan tabled at the April 2018 Steering Group meeting.

We would then give the Steering Group and Key Stakeholders one to two weeks to provide comment. We would then reconvene the working group to review comments and develop a final draft, to be presented to Steering Group at the May 2018 Meeting, prior to presenting to Council at the May 2018 Council Meeting.
