The Group acknowledged the importance of the Education program and the year-on-year growth in program elements and participation opportunities to support Visual and Performing Arts development.

07 CULTURAL PLAN REVIEW

An update was provided to the Group by Willhemina Wahlin on the 2-hour strategy session which she will lead at the 27 January 2021 Cultural Steering Group meeting to support planning for the new Cultural Plan.

The session will include:

- Understanding and unpacking data from the Cultural Economy Project to identify realistic implementation and set priorities;
- Considering the diverse needs of the community;
- Adoption of the Design Thinking Methodology and Strategic Triangle to guide the Group's discussion and identification of implementable priorities.

The Group were encouraged to familiarise themselves with the Cultural Economy Project report and current Cultural Plan prior to the strategy session.

CONSENSUS:

That the Group:

1. Note planning is underway for the 2021 review of the Cultural Plan.
2. Note that Cultural Plan engagement with the Cultural Steering Group will commence with a 2-hour strategy session led by Willhemina Wahlin at the Group's 27 January 2021 meeting.

08 ARTWALK 2020 EVENT REPORT

The Acting Group Manager Economic and Cultural Development presented an overview of key insights in the ArtWalk 2020 Event Report, which will be presented to the 9 December 2020 Ordinary Council meeting. The Group discussed the findings of the event report and noted that although the research sample size was smaller than last year due to COVID-19 implications, the data was still reasonable. The ability to increase research to better understand the social and community impacts was identified as an opportunity for future events.

Further to the above, the strategic forward plan for the event was discussed. This included:

- Discussion between an 'art trail' throughout the region (in the format of the Longest Footpath Art Gallery) versus a return of the more unique 'main event' to maximise visitor attraction;
- The ability for cultural events such as ArtWalk to be a cornerstone for future economic and cultural development in the region;
- The importance of ensuring there is an ongoing budget that is resourced accordingly to ensure event deliverables are achieved;
- The need for a longer term strategy to be developed for the event through further consideration and discussion by the Group at their February 2021 meeting, and considering this in conjunction with the key priorities to be developed under the new Cultural Plan in 2021.

CONSENSUS:

That the Group:

1. Note the key findings from the ArtWalk 2020 event debrief.
2. Endorse the September/October school holidays as the proposed event period for ArtWalk 2021, with a program that supports creative activations across the Port Macquarie-Hastings region and the traditional 'main event'.
3. Note that further engagement will be undertaken with the Group in February 2021 to consider a forward strategy for the event.

09 ABORIGINAL SCULPTURE - THE ANCESTORS

The Destination and Cultural Development Manager presented to the Group on 'The Ancestors' Aboriginal Sculpture project which commenced in 2016 but stalled due to resource availability.

It was discussed that an opportunity potentially exists to reinvigorate this project to align with the Bicentenary year in 2021. The Group acknowledged that the sculpture is aligned with the current Public Art Policy and that representation of cultural art is key for the Bicentenary period. More so, the critical need to further engage with the Aboriginal Community on exploring an open process and/or The Ancestors artwork, along with confirming an appropriate location for such works, was identified.

CONSENSUS:

That the Group:

1. Note the report on the Aboriginal Sculpture 'The Ancestors'.
2. Acknowledge that this sculpture sits within the current Public Art Policy.
3. Support engagement with the local Aboriginal community to explore development of a cultural artwork in 2021 at an appropriate location.

Pecuniary Interest

- 4.1 A pecuniary interest is an interest that you have in a matter because of a reasonable likelihood or expectation of appreciable financial gain or loss to you or a person referred to in clause 4.3.
- 4.2 You will not have a pecuniary interest in a matter if the interest is so remote or insignificant that it could not reasonably be regarded as likely to influence any decision you might make in relation to the matter, or if the interest is of a kind specified in clause 4.6.
- 4.3 For the purposes of this Part, you will have a pecuniary interest in a matter if the pecuniary interest is:
- your interest, or
  - the interest of your spouse or de facto partner, your relative, or your partner or employer, or
  - a company or other body of which you, or your nominee, partner or employer, is a shareholder or member.
- 4.4 For the purposes of clause 4.3:
- Your "relative" is any of the following:
    - your parent, grandparent, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, lineal descendant or adopted child
    - your spouse's or de facto partner's parent, grandparent, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, lineal descendant or adopted child
    - the spouse or de facto partner of a person referred to in paragraphs (i) and (i)
  - "de facto partner" has the same meaning as defined in section 21C of the Interpretation Act 1987.
- 4.5 You will not have a pecuniary interest in relation to a person referred to in subclauses 4.3(b) or (c)
- if you are unaware of the relevant pecuniary interest of your spouse, de facto partner, relative, partner, employer or company or other body, or
  - just because the person is a member of, or is employed by, a council or a statutory body, or is employed by the Crown, or
  - just because the person is a member of, or a delegate of a council to, a company or other body that has a pecuniary interest in the matter, so long as the person has no beneficial interest in any shares of the company or body.

Non-Pecuniary

- 5.1 Non-pecuniary interests are private or personal interests a council official has that do not amount to a pecuniary interest as defined in clause 4.1 of this code. These commonly arise out of family or personal relationships, or out of involvement in sporting, social, religious or other cultural groups and associations, and may include an interest of a financial nature.
- 5.2 A non-pecuniary conflict of interest exists where a reasonable and informed person would perceive that you could be influenced by a private interest when carrying out your official functions in relation to a matter.
- 5.3 The personal or political views of a council official do not constitute a private interest for the purposes of clause 5.2.
- 5.4 Non-pecuniary conflicts of interest must be identified and appropriately managed to uphold community confidence in the probity of council decision-making. The onus is on you to identify any non-pecuniary conflict of interest you may have in matters that you deal with, to disclose the interest fully and in writing, and to take appropriate action to manage the conflict in accordance with this code.
- 5.5 When considering whether or not you have a non-pecuniary conflict of interest in a matter you are dealing with, it is always important to think about how others would view your situation.

Managing non-pecuniary conflicts of interest

- 5.6 Where you have a non-pecuniary conflict of interest in a matter for the purposes of clause 5.2, you must disclose the relevant private interest you have in relation to the matter fully and in writing as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the non-pecuniary conflict of interest and on each occasion on which the non-pecuniary conflict of interest arises in relation to the matter. In the case of members of council staff other than the general manager, such a disclosure is to be made to the staff member's manager. In the case of the general manager, such a disclosure is to be made to the mayor.
- 5.7 If a disclosure is made at a council or committee meeting, both the disclosure and the nature of the interest must be recorded in the minutes on each occasion on which the non-pecuniary conflict of interest arises. This disclosure constitutes disclosure in writing for the purposes of clause 5.6.
- 5.8 How you manage a non-pecuniary conflict of interest will depend on whether or not it is significant.
- 5.9 As a general rule, a non-pecuniary conflict of interest will be significant where it does not involve a pecuniary interest for the purposes of clause 4.1, but it involves:
- a relationship between a council official and another person who is affected by a decision or a matter under consideration that is particularly close, such as a current or former spouse or de facto partner, a relative for the purposes of clause 4.4 or another person from the council official's extended family that the council official has a close personal relationship with, or another person living in the same household
  - other relationships with persons who are affected by a decision or a matter under consideration that are particularly close, such as friendships and business relationships. Closeness is defined by the nature of the friendship or business relationship, the frequency of contact and the duration of the friendship or relationship.
  - an affiliation between the council official and an organisation (such as a sporting body, club, religious, cultural or charitable organisation, corporation or association) that is affected by a decision or a matter under consideration that is particularly strong. The strength of a council official's affiliation with an organisation is to be determined by the extent to which they actively participate in the management, administration or other activities of the organisation.
  - membership, as the council's representative, of the board or management committee of an organisation that is affected by a decision or a matter under consideration, in circumstances where the interests of the council and the organisation are potentially in conflict in relation to the particular matter
  - a financial interest (other than an interest of a type referred to in clause 4.6) that is not a pecuniary interest for the purposes of clause 4.1
  - the conferral or loss of a personal benefit other than one conferred or lost as a member of the community or a broader class of people affected by a decision.
- 5.10 Significant non-pecuniary conflicts of interest must be managed in one of two ways:
- by not participating in consideration of, or decision making in relation to, the matter in which you have the significant non-pecuniary conflict of interest and the matter being allocated to another person for consideration or determination, or
  - if the significant non-pecuniary conflict of interest arises in relation to a matter under consideration at a council or committee meeting, by managing the conflict of interest as if you had a pecuniary interest in the matter by complying with clauses 4.28 and 4.29.
- 5.11 If you determine that you have a non-pecuniary conflict of interest in a matter that is not significant and does not require further action, when disclosing the interest you must also explain in writing why you consider that the non-pecuniary conflict of interest is not significant and does not require further action in the circumstances.
- 5.12 If you are a member of staff of council other than the general manager, the decision on which option should be taken to manage a non-pecuniary conflict of interest must be made in consultation with and at the direction of your manager. In the case of the general manager, the decision on which option should be taken to manage a non-pecuniary conflict of interest must be made in consultation with and at the direction of the mayor.
- 5.13 Despite clause 5.10(b), a councillor who has a significant non-pecuniary conflict of interest in a matter, may participate in a decision to delegate consideration of the matter in question to another body or person.
- 5.14 Council committee members are not required to declare and manage a non-pecuniary conflict of interest in accordance with the requirements of this Part where it arises from an interest they have as a person chosen to represent the community, or as a member of a non-profit organisation or other community or special interest group, if they have been appointed to represent the organisation or group on the council committee.

RECOMMENDATION

That the Group:

- 1. Note that planning has commenced for the renewal of Council's Cultural Plan.
- 2. Participate in an initial engagement session to inform the development of the new Cultural Plan.

Discussion

As discussed at the December CSG meeting, Council has commenced planning for the renewal of the Cultural Plan, with the current plan due to expire this year. The involvement of the Cultural Steering Group is an integral part in supporting the development of the new Cultural Plan to ensure it continues to build on the achievements of the 2018-2021 Plan in driving cultural development within the Port Macquarie-Hastings region.

To commence initial engagement with the Group on the development of the new Cultural Plan, Wilhemina Wahlin will lead a 2-hour strategy session which will combine Design Thinking with frameworks from Harvard's policy design and strategy framework. Participants will be guided through a process that begins with a deep dive on the data and recommendations made in the Port Macquarie-Hastings Cultural Economy Report, translating these into tangible goals for the Cultural Plan 2021. The aim of the workshop is to link the Cultural Economy Project to the real needs and future potential of the cultural arts and creative industries sector as a local employer, as a potential export sector, and as a value-add to other sectors, such as tourism, agriculture, manufacturing, health and education.
